

You are invited:

Forum on the Impacts of Climate Change on Agriculture in Maryland:

Implications and Potential Solutions

Flooded cropland in Maryland. Photo by Jane Hawkey.

When: October 15, 2018, 9:30–3:00
Registration begins at 9am

Where: Maryland Department of Agriculture
50 Harry S. Truman Parkway, Annapolis MD, 21401

Topics include:

- Carbon sequestration and soil health
- Salt water intrusion and planning
- Efficiencies of agricultural BMPs, WIPs, and the TMDL
- Agricultural Biomass and Bioenergy
- Invasive species
- Animal production and crop adaptation

Morning format: Series of lightening talks by researchers and resource experts

Afternoon format: Round table discussion

RSVP required: Space is limited. To assist in the round table discussion please choose the topic you are most interested in discussing while submitting your RSVP. Send RSVP to cc\_agforum@umces.edu

This forum is being held by the Science and Technical Work Group of the Maryland Commission on Climate Change and is co-hosted by UMCS, UMCP, and MDA.

